Description: This weekend is based on Bishop Spong's latest book: The Fourth Gospel: Tales of a Jewish Mystic, which takes on the Gospel of John, opening new windows of insight and challenging the ways the fourth gospel has usually been understood.

Bio: John Shelby Spong was the Episcopal Bishop of Newark before his retirement in 2001, and has long been considered one of the leading spokespersons for progressive Christianity. He has initiated landmark discussions of controversies within the church and has become an outspoken advocate for change. As a visiting lecturer at Harvard and at universities and churches throughout North America and the English-speaking world, he delivers more than 200 public lectures each year to standing-room-only crowds.

His 24 books have sold over 1 million copies. Several have been the basis for book studies at Naples UCC in recent years, including three this season: The Fourth Gospel: Tales of a Jewish Mystic, Re-Claiming the Bible for a Non-Religious World, and Born of a Woman: A Bishop Retbinks the Virgin Birth and the Treatment of Women by a Male-Dominated Church.
